

How Well Do You Know Italy?

We've left Matera and we're on the train again headed to our next destination. What a zig-zag trip! South, North, East, West--no order to it. But we're excited to visit this lovely city.

The clue of where we are is below. Remember, if you can tell us where you think we've landed, email Karen at bobzkarenz@att.net (DON'T reply to this email; it won't get to Karen.) And if you're right and among the first ten people to email, we'll send you a $5-off coupon to use on whatever event we do once we're "back to normal." You pick the event for which you want to use the coupon. But you only have one day to send in your guess: deadline is 6 pm today. And unfortunately, each household is limited to winning only two times so if you (or your spouse/other) has been smart enough to get it right and get a coupon twice already, you can't any more. You can still take a guess and if you're right, we'll tell you but you won't get another coupon.

This city is in a Region we covered a while ago. Hopefully you'll remember it. Good luck!

HERE'S YOUR CLUE:

This is a fairly small city, only about 54,000 people so it has a lot of winding lanes and narrow streets. Good for us as we won't have to dodge too many cars while we're in the city. And, of course, more cobblestones!

Like Bologna, this place has a tower too, but guess what? This one is the second tallest in Italy! We'll have to go take a look.

"Karen, we have to go take a look at the library. I hear it's been described as a "magically beautiful" place with frescoes and books that are priceless. I can only imagine how old they must be. It's really supposed to be spectacular."

“I wonder if there’s going to be a race today, Lilly. You know the city center here is one of the world’s most fabulous open spaces because of its different shape. And, I can’t wait to try some wild boar with porcini mushrooms tonight--a dish made from their special pigs. Yum,” says Karen.

“Wild boar? No thanks. I’ll just have a bowl of the soup that’s boiled two times over. And, I want to try one of those famous almond melt-in-your mouth cookies. Remind me to get a panforte for Giuseppe, too. He loves that stuff, even though it pulls out half of your teeth from all the honey and the nuts. I swear it’s been made here forever!”

“Well,” Karen says, “let’s get started!”

Think you know where we are? Don't forget: email bobzkarenz@att.net.

And...congratulations to the winners of a $5 coupon for our last Where Are We message: JoAnn Faria, Carol Glaush, Larry Magna, and Donna Tantillo. Thanks to all who sent in a guess, right or wrong. We love hearing from you!
